CONSTITUTION OF THE AMERICAN PEACE SOCIETY.

ARTICLE I. This Society shall be designated the "AMERICAN PEACE SOCIETY."

ART. II. This Society, being founded on the principle that all war is contrary to the spirit of the gospel, shall have for its object to illustrate the inconsistency of war with Christianity, to show its baleful influence on all the great interests of mankind, and to devise means for insuring universal and permanent peace.

ART. III. Persons of every Christian denomination desirous of promoting peace on earth, and good-will towards men, may become members of this Society.

ART. IV. Every annual subscriber of two dollars shall be a member of this Society.

ART. V. The payment of twenty dollars at one time shall constitute any person a Life-member.

ART. VI. The chairman of each corresponding committee, the officers and delegates of every auxiliary contributing to the funds of this Society, and every minister of the gospel who preaches once a year on the subject of peace, and takes up a collection in behalf of the cause, shall be entitled to the privileges of regular members.

ART. VII. All contributors shall be entitled within the year to one-half the amount of their contributions in the publications of the Society.

ART. VIII. The Officers of this Society shall be a President, Vice-Presidents, a Secretary, a Treasurer, an Auditor and a Board of Directors, consisting of not less than twenty members of the Society, including the President, Secretary and Treasurer, who shall be ex-officio members of the Board. All Officers shall hold their offices until their successors are appointed, and the Board of Directors shall have power to fill vacancies in any office of the Society. There shall be an Executive Committee of seven, consisting of the President, Secretary and five Directors to be chosen by the Board, which Committee shall, subject to the Board of Directors, have the entire control of the executive and financial affairs of the Society. Meetings of the Board of Directors or of the Executive Committee may be called by the President, the Secretary or two members of such body. The Society or the Board of Directors may invite persons of well known legal ability to act as Honorary Counsel.

ART. IX. The Society shall hold an annual meeting at such time and place as the Board of Directors may appoint, to receive their own and the Treasurer's report, to choose officers, and transact such other business as may come before them.

ART. X. The object of this Society shall never be changed; but the constitution may in other respects be altered, on recommendation of the Executive Committee, or of any ten members of the Society, by a vote of three-fourths of the members present at any regular meeting.

"LAY DOWN YOUR ARMS."

(DIE WAFFEN NIEDER.)

The Autobiography of Martha Von Tilling. By BERTHA VON SUTTNER. Authorized translation by T. Holmes. Revised by the Authoress. New Edition, cloth, 445 pages, 75 cts.

LONGMANS, GREEN & CO., LONDON AND NEW YORK.

This is a translation, with the sanction and co-operation of the authoress, of a romance which has obtained a great success on the Continent under the name of "Die Waffen Nieder." Baroness Suttner's object in this story is to awake the attention of all thinking persons to the evils of the present condition of the Continent of Europe, and to the possibility of finding a remedy for it in a voluntary establishment of arbitration tribunals and mutual disarmament.

"This remarkable work is producing a great effect upon the Continent of Europe. It has already had a wonderful run, and has been translated into almost every European language. . . . No more truthful picture of war in all its hideousness has ever been painted—it is equal to some of those marvellous scenes from Erckmann's stories or to the appalling photographic accuracy of Zola's 'Débâcle.' . . . It may safely be said that there is not a dull page in the book."—Christian World.

"It is a book of intense realistic power, so much so as to explain the debates that have been held over the autobiographic verity of its narrative. . . . It is as vivid in its realism as Vereschagin's paintings."—Independent, New York.

"It is a strong story and presents the question of disarmament in Europe in its most alluring, as well as its most commanding phrases."—Critic, New York.
